HICKMAN, KY.

FRIDAY, NOV. 11, 1892.

David B. Hill for President

We are for David B. Hill for President in 1892. Let's back him with a rising vote. He's a fighter from Bitter Creek. He knives nobody but Republicans, and never deserts the boys in the trenches.

A REPUBLICAN WARNING.
Now is the time of government
Throughout the nation stop,
Take care of your money, save,
For I'm going to buy.

Stone Elected.

Stone's election was considered

so certain that details as to counties is not obtained.

The indications are that he has about 3,000

majority over Deader, Keys and South, combined.

Circuit Judge.

Crossland carried Graves by

53, Fulton by 59, and Carter

defeated Hester, Bishop and Car-

dale, but no statistics are known here. Moss' friends claim his election by more than 500.

Some of Crossland's friends concede it, and others do not. The Court is of the opinion that Moss is elected.

Escaped in a Sofa.

Magnolia, Texas, Nov. 7.—Captain Camp, a burly negro barge whose crimes occupy considerable space in the criminal record of Kosciusko, passed through the office of Sheriff B. R. Ellis of Clarke

County, Miss., en route to Mayfield,

Ky., where he would spend some time in a pecuniary manner.

He was employed as a porter in the place,

and with the help of a fellow prisoner,

Escaped him by means of a sofa which was sent from the prison to be prepared, having removed his bark-pine mattress and left his way out of the sofa, when night fell and escaped. Finding himself in the woods, he got in trouble, while his friends were arrested, he was started on a train for Mayfield.

He Wanted a Fee.

The ghost who had been sitting

in some time in the restaurant,

waited up one of the waiters and said: "It is a case to me to wait on you, but I will do it."

"Yes," said the ghost, "I think

I ought to have a fee from somebody, for I have been waiting here

for many hours."

"Oh," said the unshaven waiter, "it isn't a fee you want, but a feud?"—[N.Y. Press.]

It appears certain that the Democrats will have 99 majority in the new House, and control the U. S.

Senate.

No possibility of result being changed as to Presidency.

The State of Washington has claimed to 300 Indian voters, while

Oregon boasts of 30.

What You Want.

"What makes you so certain?"

"I based my argument at daybreak, and he promised to pay my funeral expenses and manage his widow."—[Atlanta Constitution.]
